

Creation Festival: The Tour

Fall 2010 Media Kit

OVERVIEW

The Creation Festivals are entering 33 years as the nation's largest Christian music festivals and the premier name in Christian music events.

The Creation expansion began again in 2008 with the launch of Creation Festival: The Tour in Fall 2008. The first of our annual tours was a tremendous success, proving to be one of the largest tours of Fall 08 through tickets sold and sponsor impressions. Fall 2010 brings another amazing year from the Creation brand as it sets out on the third annual Creation Festival: The Tour.

This 20 city tour, has a total projected attendance of nearly 100,000 delivering an intimate opportunity for your brand, product or service to interact with these major market audiences.

In one night of music, teaching and fun, this strategically routed tour will hit major A markets in North America and allow music fans to experience a taste of the annual 4-day Creation Festival events, which have become a tradition for tens of thousands.

Creation Festival: The Tour is not just another concert, but an event with a local community outreach for each market, consisting of a clothing collection or food drive, high school visits and the like - it's a tour that has a direct and positive impact in each community it hits.

The tour also features exclusive talk back sessions, free resources, group leader tools, artist meet & greets and more.

Pastor Harry Thomas, Creation Festival co-founder, explains: "Whenever Jesus came to a town, people became aware of God's love for them. Our vision for this tour is to bless people spiritually and in practical ways. We want to go beyond the venue walls into the community with a touch of God's love and good news!" "

Our vision for this tour is to continue to brand the Creation Festival model and touring division in fresh and modern ways. We've spent years developing these tours and were ecstatic to have our first two tours end as a success. We will capitalize on the momentum provided over the years and will continue to build this touring division into a powerful event for the Creation brand, our sponsors and this industry." - Nick Kulb Producer, Creation Festival, Touring Division and Director of Marketing & Sales, Creation Festivals.

2010 Artist Line Up!

Thousand Foot Krutch has exploded. Why? Was it when "Fire It Up" was played at the Super Bowl, or when the Detroit Red Wings used "Welcome to the Masquerade," or maybe when Carrie Underwood added 2 TFK songs to her iTunes Celebrity Playlist? Nope, TFK has been playing for years in front of an ever growing army of fans. Now as one of the most popular acts played on Christian and secular radio, and Sirius XM, this BEC Recordings artist is headlining Creation Festival: The Tour 2010. TFK is joined by Disciple. After more than 15 years of playing together, Disciple doesn't just rock harder than most bands—they work harder than most of them too, recently completing their third album with INO Records. The band also has seen their music break into a whole new audience with exposure on shows like NFL's "Total Access," WWE's "Cyber Sunday" and Fox Sports' "Best Damn Sports Show." Opening the night, we're excited to present Ivory Line in support of their new release Vessels. Their Tooth & Nail debut There Came A Lion (2008) opened as one of the best-selling albums from a new band in the label's history.
