

Prophecy News Watch

Are you looking for a group of Christians active in their Faith who are interested in current events from a Biblical perspective?

Prophecy News Watch is exactly what you need.

Many people simply don't have the time to keep up with everything happening in our world, nor do they necessarily always have the perspective to know what to be looking for.

Prophecy News Watch helps with both by finding the most relevant news articles that you are probably not hearing about in the traditional news media and putting it into one of the trends that the Bible talks about in the End Times.

These news stories are not necessarily the fulfillment of certain Bible prophecies, but they are events that show a foreshadowing of the move towards the eventual fulfillment of what the Bible says. These stories are collected from hundreds of different sources and are made available to you.

Your direct email ad and/or email newsletter sponsorship will put your message in front of this prophecy-driven audience.
